P.C.

1. We have head the learned Counsel for the parties as also the learned Associate Advocate General.

2. The subject matter of the petition pertains to re-location of stables for cattle. The leaned Counsel for the parties want to file their respective affidavits-in-reply in response to the stand taken by the State. There are also the other parties who want to intervene in the matter.

3. This Court has, in the past, passed various Orders directing the State to streamline the issue, so that the stables are re-located at a place, which is convenient to all and takes care of everybody's interest.

4. We therefore permit the parties to intervene in the matter and expect that all concerned to co-operate with the learned Associate Advocate General to place before this Court, an action plan for relocation of stables outside the Municipal limits of Greater Bombay.

5. In the meantime affidavits-in-reply be filed by all the parties. We will highly appreciate that if the learned Counsel for the parties would furnish a synopsis so that it can assist the Court in resolving the issue.

6. All these Chamber Summonses accordingly disposed of.

7. Petition be listed after four weeks.
